

Newton Hall Infants' School
Curriculum Overview Spring 1 2020

What we have learnt this half term:

Area of Learning	Reception
Communication and Language	Role-play – doctors, police, etc Asking questions to visitors
Physical	Fundamental movement skills, skipping, Judo taster Real P.E. – object control and partner work
Personal, Social and Emotional	Dansi – Special people
Literacy	Fiction and non-fiction books Phonics Phase 3, sentence writing
Maths	Counting, number recognition, 2D/3D shapes, practical addition
Understanding the World	Meeting people who work in the local community – police, doctors, vet, midwife. Waterproof and material testing
Expressive Arts and Design	Painting and colour mixing, Nursery Rhymes Rock Collage and printing

Subject	Year 1	Year 2
English	Elmer – retelling story, character description Toy Story – character description, sequence story	Own story writing focusses on Allan Ahlberg, non-fiction persuasive writing
Maths	Division, multiplication, measures, counting 2's, 5's and 10's	Real life measures and multiplication, methods
Science	Materials	Habitats – focussing on the ocean
Computing	Beebots	Coding – Beebots, etc
History	Toys in the Past	Timelines – Firsts
Geography	None this half term	None this half term
P.S.H.C.E	Rules and listening skills	Our bodies and well-being
Art and Design	None this half term	None this half term
Design and Technology	Moving Pictures – Circus Book	Puppets
P.E.	Toys dance, Real PE - balance	3 touch ball Balancing
Music	Explore different styles of music	Rock music
R.E.	Why is Jesus special?	St. Cuthbert